Gents:—

We have not had a chance to look over the account but suppose you head next lot, if ready, with the balance you make due you. — Mason & Co 20th 6.²² and send on the coins. We do not doubt your ac, but would like to examine the back Invoices. We want proof sets, old dolls, 1796 & '97 $\frac{1}{2}$ dolls, a reasonable 1794 dol. Our customer bot one at your sale 40 odd dolls, after giving us the order. So it goes. We really feel sorry for your trouble, and strange to say, Mr Steigerwalt

P.S. Doubt getting out No 2 of Coin Magazine. Put up with whatever sent.

Wrote us same mail that the illness of his Aunt prevented getting off a lot for us. Dr. M. and Mr S. both wonder why we sell more of your stock than theirs. Because your stock is more desirable & lower in price for many pieces. We do
